

Italians Make Further Gains in Fierce Battle on Piave---Take 1,000 Prisoners

RIVER RISING AGAIN BRINGS FRESH PERIL TO AUSTRIANS

Edge of Montello, and were fighting toward the river.

Enemy prisoners declare that the Austrians' attack in this sector frustrated an Austrian attack, which was planned to be launched just an hour after the Italian assault began.

River Rises Again.

Continued bad weather has caused the Piave to rise again, just as it showed indications of receding. The enemy forces on this side are still in a critical position, and are forced to depend upon limited quantities of food, brought over in airplanes.

On the lower Piave, Austrians have succeeded in freighting armored field guns across in boats, but none of their craft is large enough to transport their heavy guns.

The work of the Italian, British, and American armies is most effective. A number of British aviators, after exhausting their bombs and machine gun cartridges, hovered a few feet over the enemy dropping spare parts of tools.

High tribute is paid to the Czechoslovaks, who are fighting with the Italians, and who are said to be contending "with lion-hearted bravery."

REPORT ITALIANS UPON MARNE FRONT

AMSTERDAM, June 22.—According to the German war office Italians are fighting with the French, British and Americans on the Marne front, in France. An official report issued by the German war office said:

"Southwest of the Marne. Some Italian prisoners were captured."

REPULSE OF FOE'S RAIDS REPORTED

PARIS, June 22.—German raids were repulsed in the region of Belloy and Hautebraye and in Alsace, the French war office announced today.

"French troops took a German outpost at St. Maur, capturing a number of prisoners."

PRISONERS TAKEN, GEN. HAIG REPORTS

LONDON, June 22.—"A few prisoners were taken and casualties inflicted on the enemy in raids and patrol encounters in the Villers-Bretonneux and Strazeele sectors," Field Marshal Haig reported today.

AUSTRIA WILL BE FIRST TO COLLAPSE

By J. W. T. MASON.

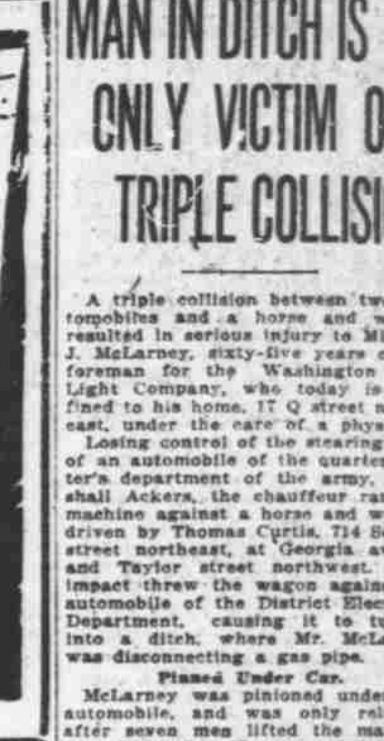

NEW YORK, June 22.—While Austria-Hungary's collapse and withdrawal from the war cannot be fixed at any definite time as the result of the present disturbances in Vienna, there is no doubt that the dual monarchy must be the next country to follow Russia's example if the war continues long enough.

The terrible strain of four years of conflict has been weakening even to the most powerful of the belligerent nations. It is impossible for any of them to continue fighting indefinitely for an indefinite period. The war has entered its final phase of exhaustion, which must continue until the German militarists accept a democratic peace. The power of exhaustion will necessarily affect the less robust nationalities first and Austria-Hungary is now the weakest of all the great nations in the conflict.

For this reason, Austria-Hungary's eventual collapse is inevitable, unless militarism surrenders. The inexorable force which is pulling Austria-Hungary out of the German orbit is working, however, at a speed which it is impossible to calculate. The present rioting is apparently far more serious than has occurred on previous occasions during the past year in the Hapsburg empire, but how near the people are to actual revolution cannot be foretold.

TOO WEAK TO FIGHT

The "Come-back" man was really never down-and-out. His weakened condition because of overwork, lack of exercise, improper eating and living demands stimulation to satisfy and cry for a health-giving appetite and the refreshing sleep of contentment or strength. GOLD MEDAL Haasem Oil Capsules, the National Remedy of Holland, will do it. Three of these capsules each day will put a man on his feet before he knows it. Whether his trouble comes from uric acid poisoning, the kidneys, gravel or stone in the bladder, stomach derangement, or other ailments that befall the over-taxed American. Don't wait until you are entirely down-and-out, but take them today. Your druggist will gladly refund your money if they do not help you. Accept no substitutes. Look for the name GOLD MEDAL on every box, three sizes. They are the pure, original, imported Haasem Oil Capsules.

The Tiny Times for Next Sunday Will Be One of Orr's Best Efforts.

K. C. B.'s TOWN GOSSIP

BY SPECIAL DELIVERY.

FROM A friend of mine.

WHOM I have never seen.

BUT WHO washes dishes.

IN A cafeteria.

IN A department store.

I HAVE a letter.

THAT ADVISES me.

NEVER to mind.

WHAT THE Harvard man says.

ABOUT MY English.

"BECAUSE IT'S all right."

THE DISHWASHER says.

"AND IF the Harvard man."

"WHO WRITES the letters."

"HAD A sense of humor."

"HE WOULD surely know."

"THAT THE terms you use."

"ARE EXPRESSIVE of something."

"THAT COULDN'T be told."

"IN OTHER words."

AND THERE you are.

AND JUST because.

THERE ARE more dishwashers.

THAN HARVARD graduates.

AND THAT the price of the paper.

IS JUST the same.

NO MATTER who buys it.

I'M GOING to forget it.

AND LET the dishwasher.

GO ON with his letter.

IN WHICH he says.

(WITH A change or two.

(TO MAKE it fit.)

"IF THE man who writes."

"CAN DRAW a picture."

"SO THAT I may see it."

"JUST AS the artist."

"PAINTS a picture."

"SO THAT I may see it."

"WHAT DOES it matter."

"THE BRUSH he uses."

"OR THE colors he uses?"

"AND IF the picture."

THE WRITER draws.

"IN THE reader's mind."

"MAY BE the means."

"OF PROMPTING the reader."

"TO BETTER things."

"WHAT DOES it matter."

"THAT HE splits an infinitive?"

AND AFTER that.

MY DISHWASHER friend.

SAYS A word or two.

ABOUT THE brevity.

OF THE lines I write.

AND QUOTES from Pope.

HE SAYS it was.

"WORDS ARE like leaves."

"AND WHERE they most abound."

"MUCH FRUIT of sense beneath is rarely found."

AND THEN he tells me.

ABOUT HIS troubles.

AND HOW it happened.

HE'S WASHING dishes.

IN A cafeteria.

AND HE isn't ashamed.

AND IF he could.

HE WOULD go to France.

BUT THEY won't take him.

AND THERE'S a postscript.

AND IT reads.

"I'M A Harvard man myself."

CHARLES TOWSON, D. C. MARINE, DIES OF HIS WOUNDS

Dies of wounds received in action with the United States Marine Corps. Private Charles A. Towson, son of Mrs. Lucy N. Towson, 264 Eleventh street northwest, is mourned by many friends and relatives in Washington.

When his sister, Mrs. Agnes Skelton, 1815 Eleventh street northwest, received the news from J. W. Gerber, who had employed the youth as his private secretary previous to his enlistment, she was overwhelmed with sorrow.

The mother, Mrs. Lucy Towson, had gone to visit his sister, near Baltimore, about a week ago. The sisters received news two weeks ago that the marine was fighting in the trenches, and they kept the information from the mother, who was almost a nervous wreck.

The day before the departure of his regiment, when he was visiting his mother and sisters, Charles, who had posed only once in his life for a photograph, was persuaded by his sister to take a snapshot of him. He said: "I guess I will permit you to get a picture of me, for I feel that I am never coming back."

Private Towson was twenty-six years old. He was born in Fredericksburg, Va., but had lived most of his life in Washington.

He is survived by his mother and two sisters: Mrs. Lucy N. Towson, Mrs. Agnes Skelton, and Miss May Nelson Towson, all of Washington.

The sisters left for Baltimore this morning to break the news of Private Towson's death to the mother.

52 GRADUATED FROM WILSON NORMAL SCHOOL

Washington's staff of prospective school teachers is fifty-two larger to day through graduates from the Wilson Normal School.

Relatives and friends filled the assembly hall at the exercises at the school last night. In an address to the graduates Miss Ruth Genevieve Smith, president of the class, said: "Let us go forth with the flame of earnest purpose to train the children of this country to become citizens capable of coping with the problems arising out of this war."

Superintendent of Schools Ernest L. Thurston awarded the diplomas. The valedictory was given by Miss Marie Blissett, Elizabeth Godwin, who is engaged in war work in Switzerland, is a member of the class, and will have her diploma forwarded to her.

The class officers are as follows: Ruth Genevieve Smith, president; Vera Marie Phillips, vice president; Eloise Marie Blissett, treasurer; Ruth Campbell Robertson, secretary; Marie Blissett, valedictorian; Helen Carroll Smith, class poet.

NEGRO WOUNDED IN LEG; POLICE SEEK GUN TOTER

Another pistol toter who fired a bullet in the right leg of Henry Warren, colored, 63 Third street southwest, causing a severe wound, is being sought today by the police of the Fourth precinct.

Warren was in an argument this morning at Four-and-a-Half and G streets southwest with another colored man, when the latter whipped a revolver from his pocket and fired on him. The pistol toter escaped.

Boys playing with an air rifle this morning caused a painful injury to Owen Sterling, sixty-five years old, 17 Florida avenue northwest. Mr. Sterling was walking at Third street and Florida avenue northwest, when a bullet from the rifle, fired by one of the boys, grazed his nose. The wounded was dressed by a neighboring physician.

WILL FIGHT INDICTMENT IN RACE BETTING CASE

Withdrawing their plea of not guilty Frank McCormick and Samuel Hayward, through their attorneys today filed a motion before Justice Stafford to quash the indictment charging them with setting up a gambling table in connection with betting on horse races.

Judge Daniel Thos Wright, who argued the motion, declared that the indictment specified no day or time when the offense is alleged to have been committed and denied that the betting or wagering of money upon the results of horse races is keeping a gaming table as meant in the criminal code of this District.

MAN IN DITCH IS ONLY VICTIM OF TRIPLE COLLISION

A triple collision between two automobiles and a horse and wagon resulted in serious injury to Michael J. McLarny, sixty-five years old, a foreman for the Washington Gas Light Company, who today is confined to his home, 17 Q street northeast, under the care of a physician.

Lossing control of the steering gear of an automobile of the quartermaster's department of the army, Marshall Ackers, the chauffeur ran the machine against a horse and wagon, driven by Thomas Curtis, 714 Second street northeast, at Georgia avenue and Taylor street northwest. The impact threw the wagon against an automobile of the District Electrical Department, causing it to tumble into a ditch, where Mr. McLarny was disconnecting a gas pipe.

Placed Under Car.

McLarny was pinned under the automobile, and was only released after seven men lifted the machine from his body. He was painfully injured about the hips and legs, and was taken to Freedmen's Hospital. He later went to his home.

While crossing Georgia avenue and Morton street northeast, Thomas Muelles, eleven years old, 723 Park road northwest, was knocked down and injured about the body by an automobile operated by James T. Bryn, of Spencerville, Md. Mr. Bryn placed the boy in the automobile and took him to the Garfield Hospital, where his injuries were dressed.

Alfred Vonable, 918 H street northwest, was shaken up and his automobile was slightly damaged yesterday when it was struck by a car of the Capital Traction Company in Pennsylvania avenue, between Fourteenth and Fifteenth streets northwest.

An hour later a car of the same company collided with an automobile operated by Charles B. Hill, 1715 B Sales street northwest, at Pennsylvania avenue and Fifteenth street northwest, causing damage to both car and automobile.

A horse-drawn carriage, driven by William Pryor 920 L street northwest, was struck and slightly damaged yesterday by an automobile operated by Louis D. Wilson, 1118 Eighteenth street northwest, on E street between Second and Third streets.

Damage estimated at $100 was caused to the automobile owned and operated by George Baldwin, 479 Ridge street northwest, when it was in collision yesterday with an automobile owned by Gordon Auchincloss, 1827 Nineteenth street northwest, and operated by Sarah White, colored, an employee of Mr. Auchincloss. The accident occurred at Eighteenth and L streets northwest.

Skidding at Thirteenth street and Florida avenue northwest last night, an automobile operated by James Baldwin, 1321 Belmont street northwest, crashed into a mail box, wrecking it.

"Car Stop" Sign Hit.

A "car stop" sign standing in the street in front of 506 G street northwest was knocked down and broken last night by an automobile driven by Henry Downing, 317 H street northwest.

A horse attached to a wagon owned by the Connecticut Pie Company and driven by J. W. Copper, 3012 R street northwest, was struck by an automobile owned by M. O. Bull, 2101 Rhode Island avenue northeast, at Tenth street and Pennsylvania avenue northeast.

Another horse owned by the Kikman Soap Company was injured when hit by an auto truck owned by Stephen H. Sefton, 913 Second street northeast, at Ninth and H streets northeast. The wagon to which the horse was harnessed and the truck were damaged.

40 ARE KILLED, 25 DYING, AND 80 INJURED IN WRECK

These it was reported most of those caught in the wreckage was burned to death.

Charles Colmar, manager of the circus, and his wife, escaped. Edward Ballard, of French Lick, Ind., owner of the circus, was ahead of the show and now is Hammond, assisting in caring for the injured performers.

The only livestock in the train were a few circus horses whose terror added to the turmoil.

The fire departments of Gary and Hammond rushed apparatus to the scene, but they were delayed on route.

The circus train was the second section of the Hagenbeck show. It had fourteen flat cars, containing equipment, in addition to the four tourist sleepers. It was bound for Hammond, where a show is scheduled for today.

GERMAN CIRCUS BARRED

LONDON, June 22.—Holland is boycotting Hagenbeck's circus, now showing in Amsterdam. Protests have been lodged with the Dutch government against the presence in Holland of the famous German menagerie, on ground that the animals eat food that should be used to remedy the nation's food shortage.

LUMINOUS HOUSE NUMBERS.

Luminous house numbers and street name-plates traced in little button-like mirrors which reflect and magnify the smallest glimmer of light are to be used in Paris, where in the darkened streets ordinary signs cannot be seen.
